BURNS CONTEMPT CASE AGAIN IS POSTPONED

Benies Any Impropriety or Illegality In Sending Negro Woman Witness Out of City. Atlanta, Ga., May 16.—The hearing of the charge of contempt of court against William J. Burns and Dan S. Lehon, his Heutenant in the Frank investigation, which was set for Friday, was postponed until next week.

Lehon and Burns, through their attorneys, Little, Powell, Hooper and Goldstein, have filed an answer to the contempt charge.

The answer of Burns and Lehon de-The answer of Burns and Lehon develops the interesting fact that they were advised by Attorneys Luther Z. Rosser and Reuben R. Arnoid that there was not the slightest impropriety or Illegality in their conduct in sending the witness, Annie Maud Carter, out of the city, but that it was the appropriate and proper thing to do under the circumstances.

The answer says:

"Deponent believes that in so doing sensing the witness out of town).

(sending the witness out of town), he was serving the cause of right and fustice, and was aiding the court in the escentainment of truth, and was in no wise intending any contempt of court of of its processes, but was endeaver-ing to assist the court in having its witnesses brought into court from an improper influence being exerted upon

The answer set out that nothing beyond the expenses of the weman was paid her, and that it is guite proper that where a witness is being detained for the use of a party that it is proper that teh party should pay the expense actually incurred.

British Commander Calls on Leader of Rebel Forces.

Washington, May 16.—Admiral Mayo reported to-day that the Mexican Federal gunboat Vera Cruz, previously reported to have been abandoned, was sunk in the Panuco River at Tampico. Admiral Cradock, commander of the British naval forces at Tampico, called yesterday with his entire staff and two captains upon General Gonzales, commander of the Constitutionalist troops. Admiral Mayo said he had arranged to call to-day, but with the understanding that his visit would be inderstanding that his visit would be in-

Luke McCall Murders Albert Billow, With Whom He Had Quarreled.
Captured and Landed in Jail.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., May 16.—Luke Mclall, a young cotton mill operative, his afternoon walked up to Albert Billow, who was standing surrounded by friends at Schoolfield, and exclaimed, "I believe I'll shoot you." He drew a small calibre pistol and shot him through the breast. Billow died in forty-five minutes, and McCall, after being chased a mile, was caught by officers, who brought him here to jail. McCall refuses to talk about the murder, but people who knew both men declare that the killing was the outcome of a long quarrel.
